

Payroll Solutions for the Manufacturing Industry

Today's manufacturers constantly look for ways to remain competitive through streamlined processes and increased efficiencies. As demand for price concessions rise, manufacturers must manage their bottom lines more effectively. GTM helps manufacturers streamline their workforce management and data collection processes.

List of Challenges

- Manual collection of labor and job cost related data
- Multiple pay rates for employees
- Manual journal entries into accounting system
- Piece rate calculations or quantities goods and scrapped
- Aggressive deadlines and fluctuating demands from your customers
- Environments with complex work and pay rules
- Extreme reliance on overtime and contingent labor to meet objectives

What makes GTM different?
